NOTE FOR: Acting Director of Central Intelligence

FROM : Richard J. Kerr
ADDI

SUBJECT : PFIAB Recommendations

I don't think the IC Staff's proposed response to the Chairman of PFIAB is acceptable. I have some substantive problems with the comments on specific recommendations, but, more important, I think the response is superficial. It does not deal effectively with assertions that the Agency should not agree with, nor does it identify activities now underway that relate to real problems they have identified.

One way to deal with the Annual Report is to have the presentation to PFIAB now scheduled for early September cover the areas raised in the report. Bob Gates could address analysis and DDI personnel much more effectively in that forum than we can in a short written response.
